

Databases Development and Maintenance

Our staff of experienced, professional database developers and DBAs combine their skills with mainstream technologies to provide state-of-the-art business solutions. What that means to you is user friendly, cost effective and efficient tools with which to run your business or organization. We can help you customize or develop from the ground up database solutions that enhance your business productivity. Our skill set includes: MySQL - Database Optimization and Maintenance. Integration/Migration of existing systems to a MySQL backend. Microsoft Access - Database Development Services , Customization and Maintenance dBase - Data conversion/ Maintenance. Integration of existing dBase based systems with current technologies. FoxPro Clipper Summer Database Administration

We provide database administration staff augmentation support. We can provide on-site support consisting of a highly trained professional available every day to perform the tasks you need to make your business successful.

Services By using state-of-the art technologies we offer our remote database support SLA (service level agreement) (packs) packages?. By using the Internet, Virtual Private Network (VPN) and a variety of Remote Administration Tools we can securely administer a database from our headquarters in Los Angeles,CA. From MS Access based intranet applications to web based MySQL portals, we can help you develop or maintain your information securely and up to date. Call us today to schedule a free , no commitment consultation with our experts !!!